

Dr. Pencilcode workshop – Survey

Task 1. Visit Dr. Pencilcode website: <http://drpencilcode.libresoft.es/> or <http://193.147.79.206/>

a. What do you think about the website? Do you think it is appealing?

b. Has the information displayed on the screen helped you to understand what the web is for?

Task 2. Analyze one of your Pencilcode projects with Dr.Pencilcode.

a. Was it easy to do the analysis?

b. Do you understand the results shown?

c. How did you feel when you saw the results?

d. Why?

Task 3. From the results page, after analyzing a project, click on any of the links “Want to know more?” to get information that can help you improve your program.

a. Write the name of the page you have clicked on:

b. Do you understand the information displayed on this new page?

c. After reading the information, Do you feel like improving your project by trying something new in Pencilcode?

Task 4. Using the information that has been shown in the selected help page, try to improve your project by incorporating something new. Is the information shown sufficient to understand how to make the improvement?

Task 5. After following the instructions on the help page, re-analyze your Pencilcode project with Dr. Pencilcode. Have you got a higher score/percentage?

Task 6. Comment whatever you want about Dr. Pencilcode: things you like, things you don't, ideas that we could incorporate...